

Batten Grant Recipients 2013-14

Ming-Jer Chen (Darden School), "Entrepreneurship and the Ambicultural Orientation in Taiwan"

Michael E. Gorman (School of Engineering & Applied Science), "Intelliject, A Case Study of a Successful Entrepreneurial Venture"

Edward Hess (Darden School), "The Conundrum of Operational Excellence and Innovation"

Jeanne Liedtka (Darden School), "Design Thinking for Innovation: An Examination of the Efficacy of its Tools and Processes"

Pedro Matos (Darden School), "Do General Managerial Skills Spur Innovation?"

Sonal Pandya (College of Arts & Sciences), "Intellectual Property Rights as International Trade Protection"

Saras Sarasvathy (Darden School), "Project QUID (Qualitative, Useful and Interesting Data)"

James Savage (College of Arts & Sciences), "Budgeting for Science and Innovation: A Comparison of the United States, the European Union and Japan"

Thomas Steenburgh (Darden School), "The Hex of Radical Innovation in Corporate Entrepreneurship and New Ventures"